

A BEARD STORY !

*Touched by a harsher winter than the others,
A young bearded winegrower, lives all his grapes decimated by frost.*

No more grape seeds to harvest.

Sad and tired,

*He went to find comfort with his friend the brewer.
Seated around a drink, our two friends exchanged love for their profession and their beautiful region, the South West of France.*

An idea then germinates in their heads:

- "Beard hairs! Of course! Blonde, White or Amber ... they always grow..."

Why not combine our talents to delight people?"

- *"La Barbe! We should have thought about it before!
No more time to waste, let's go brewing now..."*

Dense white foam
Blond color with golden highlights

Intense and floral with hints of elderflower and hops

Nice presence with a captivating bubble and a marked bitterness at the start and end of the palate. The mid-palate is complex and refreshing with malty flavors. Long persistence on the finish

A perfect beer to whet your appetite, which will go perfectly with salads, grilled meats, cheeses...

Barley^() malts, hops, sugar^(), yeast
